

Jim Lewis

February 28, 2011

Jim L. Lewis Age 76 Long Lake, WI

Died: Monday, February 28, 2011 in his home.

Born: January 9, 1935 in Antigo, WI

Jim's final days were surrounded by his family and friends that he had touched in so many ways through his memorable life.

Jim and Bonnie were able to recently travel to Alaska and Hawaii, which had accomplished his goal of visiting all fifty states. Jim and Bonnie had a blessed and wonderful life together and were able to share it with all of their family and friends.

Not only was he the best husband, father, and grandfather, he was a great friend to many.

He will be greatly missed by everybody.

He was preceded in death by his daughter Jeanette Smith.

He is survived by his wife, Bonnie.

“ I'm sorry to hear about Jim. I'm sorry that I didn't respond sooner but I haven't been checking my mail. I wish that I could get up there but I can since I am being treated myself. I hope to get up there in May if possible. Its hard losing your brother and husband so quickly. If theres anything that I can do, please let me know. Hope to see you soon. Love, your cousin.

“ Jim was a fine and gentle man and he was our dear friend. He loved Bonnie deeply, was proud of his children and delighted in his grandchildren. Savannah brought a special twinkle to his eyes as he watched her grow into a most charming young lady. The world was safer and saner with Jim Lewis in it—he smiled easily, he genuinely liked people, and he had a generous spirit. Indeed, every life Jim touched was made better for it. Such a special human being leaves a legacy of strength, kindness, and decency that will live on in those he loved best. George and I extend our deepest sympathy.
