“ To Jerry, Ruth, Shirley, and Susan, Please accept my deepest sympathies in the loss of your mom. She was such a sweet and quiet lady to know as I was growing up. The summers at Ottawa Lake when the Smith's and the Carlson's set up their trailers were memorable. So many memories came flooding back at the news of her passing. I pray that God comforts you all. When my dad passed, I pictured him being greeted at Heaven's gates by your dad singing, "He came walking and leaping and praising God". I've been a trucker for about 18 years and always think of your dad. I know the pain of losing your parents. Hold onto the memories and pass them on to your grandchildren. Those memories will bring tears, but will also bring laughs and a deep gratitude for your mom. I hope that all is well with each of you. God bless each of you. From an old family friend, Randall R.
