“ My sympathy to Peter's family. I would always enjoy running into Pete, as he was such a happy soul and we would talk about old times at Stambaugh High School. May your special memories bring you comfort.

“ Peter and I grew up together at Indian Lake at a time when kids enjoyed sleepovers in the backyard, making tree forts and exploring abandoned homesteads. Our childhoods were at once filled with as much mischief as mystique, particularly during those wondrous summers. Peter and previously departed David Montambo were my best pals as a young lad. Their departures leave me saddened and melanchloic for a special time that was. Catch a few lightening bugs, my friends, until the day that we shall meet again...
