“My condolences. Very fond memories of Bob, his tall tales of his hunting exploits were always so entertaining, being around him was always a joy. The regulator on the LP tanks at camp came from Bob so that will be a constant reminder of his helpful ways and a part of him will always live on there.

“Lois: We were extremely saddened to hear of Bob's passing. He was a special, fun-loving guy and he will be missed. We will always cherish the memories of the time we spent w/the two of you in FL, and when you stopped to see us @ the campground in East Jordan. Let those happy memories of your times together sustain you in this time of sorrow. Ron & Cheryl
