“ Dearest Barb and Family, I am very saddened to hear of Ron's passing. Barb, Just seeing the smile Ron put on your face, made my heart warm and I knew that you were so happy and my dear, sweet friend you were so blessed to find someone that gave you the life of love, fun, and happiness you so deserve. Ron was definitely a fun, kind, and passionate man. He sure loved to dance with his beautiful wife. He will be missed by so many. My condolences go out to Ron's family and friends and may God bless and heal you in your time of sorrow. With Deepest Sympathy, Love, Kelli and Family

“ Sorry to hear of Ron's passing. We became friends when working at Ford Motor Co. in Wixom. We both lived in the Howell/Brighton area at the time. Ron retired in 1995 and I retired in 1998, Ron stopped by the house many times when he was in the Howell area after he retired. I also stopped in to see Ron when we were in the U.P.
