“ Ms Annabelle & Family, We are saddened for your loss, as we found out the 8th of June. I Bartend at the VFW and served Stevie many a beer. Was a dear friend and helped me in many ways over the years. Know you can be very proud of him, a better friend you would never find. Bless you all, Al & Pat

“ Mother Annabelle & Siblings, Deepest condolences, I found out within an hour ago (9:18 on the 8th) from a friend from VA. Beach via the VFW. Y'all may not know but Stevie stayed with me for sometime in Va. Beach while he was working with Ralph Stephens & I was a contractor. we shared many good times, and, yes, maybe too many beers on occasion, but his heart was there, sincere, help anyone with any type of difficulty. I left for "greener pastures" in Perryville, AR., with him in the U-Haul to help me unpack it all. We had a great 7-8 days of fishing & unpacking. I've copied his obit & will have it as a reminder when I drove us to Iron River to the house & fun in YOUPPER COUNTRY...God Bless! Tom Williams
